The Southold Economic Development Committee is pleased to partner with the Long Island Development Corporation (LIDC) & Long Island Small Business Assistance Corp (LISBAC) in sponsoring a series of educational workshops in 2015. These workshops will be tailored towards helping specific Southold industries with information and resources that will feature speakers with exceptional expertise in their respective fields regarding access to low-cost loan programs including capital projects and free technical assistance to promote business growth.

The kick-off event will focus on how to grow your viticulture and agriculture business featuring the following guests:

- Augie Ruckdeschel - Farmlands Administrator for Suffolk County Economic Development and Planning
- Roz Goldmacher, President, Long Island Development Corp & Long Island Small Business Assistance Corp
- Robert Carpenter - Administrator for the Long Island Farm Bureau
- Steven Bate - Executive Director of Long Island Wine Council

Additional workshops will focus on commercial fishing and aquaculture, not-for-profits and start-up entrepreneurs and inventors.

Please RSVP by January 20th to Phillip Beltz
